THE 2019 ASIAN PACKAGING EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Establish Yourself as a Leader Among Champions

The 17th annual Asian Packaging Excellence Awards recognises outstanding achievement and contributions within the Asian packaging industry. Packaging represents one of the most dynamic sectors of the print industry, and time and again, examples of superb work from the Asian region reinforce the importance of the region in this industry. The Packaging Excellence Awards ensure that such achievements do not go unrecognised.

The Asian Packaging Excellence Awards is the only regional packaging competition of its kind in Asia. Supported by leading industry suppliers, the Awards allow the packaging community to experience, be inspired by and, most importantly, connect at every level of the very best in Asian packaging.

The Awards are open to any progressive, quality printing company that wishes. There are no fees for entry, so enter now and prove that your team is the best - by winning the Gold, Silver or Bronze award in your category. An Asian Packaging Excellence Award provides your customers and prospects with the proof that you are as good as you say.
